No. G. 5847—G. M. 232-13-1, dated 2nd February 1914.

The first class travellers' bungalow at Jog or Gersoppa Falls will hereafter be called the "Gersoppa Falls Visitors' Bungalow." In modification of the existing rules applicable to it, the following special rules are framed and published for general information:—

1. The bungalow is intended for the temporary accommodation of visitors to the Water Falls. A plan of the building and lists of furniture and servants available are attached. Visitors must make their own arrangements for all other articles and servants required.

2. During the three months of November, December and January, visitors intending to occupy the bungalow will have to obtain the previous written permission of the Deputy Commissioner.

3. The fee for each person, whether official or non-official, occupying a separate suite of rooms is Rs. 2 per day of 24 hours and for two or more persons (whether married couples or not) Rs. 3 per day. Fees at the same rate will be levied for any additional occupancy of 24 hours or a fraction thereof.

4. Visitors passing the night at the bungalow will pay the full fee.

5. Visitors occupying the bungalow between sunrise and sunset only are subject to half fee.

6. Visitors alighting for not more than an hour and taking no meals are subject to no fee.

7. No one may occupy the bungalow for more than five consecutive days, if the accommodation is otherwise required, without the permission of the Deputy Commissioner of the District.

8. No person may occupy more than one suite of rooms when the others are in demand.

9. The kitchen for Hindus attached to the bungalow is intended to be used by "vegetarian Hindus" only, and this rule will be invariably enforced.

10. No part of the bungalow or the bungalow compound may be used, nor may the servants be employed without payment of the prescribed fee. But a visitor not making use of the bungalow but merely pitching his tents and picketting his horses within the compound or merely using for any purpose such of the outhouses as are not required by those occupying the bungalow will be charged half the ordinary fee for personal occupancy.

11. Visitors are prohibited from sheltering their horses, or other cattle or vehicles within the verandahs of the bungalow. The personal baggage alone of visitors will be admitted into the bungalow compound.

12. Visitors will be held responsible for damage done by themselves or their servants to the bungalow or furniture or other articles. All articles injured or broken must be paid for prior to the visitors' departure according to the scale fixed by the Deputy Commissioner.

13. The person in charge of the bungalow is bound to assist visitors in procuring supplies for ready money.

14. The person in charge of the bungalow is required to place conspicuously in each room, a list of charges countersigned, in approval, by the Deputy Commissioner. If visitors prefer to procure their own meals, the person in charge is bound to afford them assistance and see that they have the use of the cookroom.

15. In the printed form, or book, kept in the bungalow for the purpose, visitors are requested to enter their names, dates and hours of arrival and departure and amount of fees paid.

16. The Deputy Commissioner is the referee in all cases of dispute. Visitors who have any complaints to make should address that officer by letter, or enter their complaint in the "Remarks" column of the printed form or book.

17. All fees and demands in accordance with the foregoing rules and the mess charges authorised by the Deputy Commissioner must be paid by visitors before leaving the bungalow: but references regarding any irregularity, inconvenience or other supposed cause for exemption from the regulated payment should be made to the Deputy Commissioner.

18. It is the duty of the person in charge of the bungalow to report any violation of the foregoing rules. The Amildar or other public servant on the spot should report to the Deputy Commissioner any maltreatment of the bungalow servants and generally any deviation from these rules which may come under his knowledge or may be brought to his notice by the person in immediate charge of the bungalow. The occupant will be held responsible for any infringement of the rules by his servants.
